Program Overview:

The Clark County Convention Facilities Authority exists to stimulate and assist Clark County venues in the enhancement, promotion and marketing of Clark County as a destination. The objective of the CFA is to assist hospitality venues. The program is structured to offer funding assistance to venues that, based on their own merit, an eventually grow and succeed without financial assistance from the program.

Mission:

The Clark County Convention Facilities Authority provides funding assistance to public and/or private not-for-profit organizations that require assistance to pay for existing facilities, new construction, expansion, repair and enhancement of a facility that directly targets growing the tourism economy in Clark County through overnight stays.

Funding:

Funding for the CFA is authorized under the Ohio Revised Code section 351.01. Funding decisions are made solely on venues which meet the criteria of the legislation and applicant ability and intent to attract visitors to generate hotel/motel room nights from outside the county.

The Clark County Convention Facilities Authority is subject to Ohio's Sunshine Laws

Program Guidelines

1. Venues seeking assistance must fit the criteria and intent of the legislation: Meeting, event and sporting facilities.
2. Venues must clearly show the intent to enhance the development of travel and tourism through programming which attracts overnight guests.

3. The primary function of venues must be designed to enhance and develop Clark County, Ohio's image as a leisure travel/sports/meeting and cultural destination. In making decisions on applications the CFA Board will consider such factors as the type and scope of the agency/organization applying, the effect and impact of the venue and its programming, the time span during which the funding will be needed, the amount of funding requests, the project ability and intent to attract overnight visitors to Clark County, Ohio on a continuing basis and after the funding timeframe is completed.
4. The venue must develop programming and marketing which is designed to stimulate economic activity for the venue and for the extended community.
5. The Board of the CFA shall make final funding decisions and shall have sole authority in granting and disbursing funds. In person interviews with the CFA Board is a requirement of this the application process.
6. Projects not performed within the scope of an accepted application and guidelines of the program will be denied and receipt of funds rescinded.
7. No recipient who has failed to complete any funding contract satisfactorily will be eligible for subsequent assistance grants from CFA.
8. Periodic accountability forms must be completed by the grant recipient and reviewed by the CFA Board. Failure to meet the terms of funding requirements can result in the suspension or termination of funding.
9. Disbursement of funds will follow accepted accounting practices.
10. The Board of the CFA reserves the right to inspect at any time the grant recipients records to insure compliance with the program guidelines and accuracy of financial reporting
11. The CFA Board may choose to award multiple year funding grants.

Notes:

1. If your organization has completed this grant package in the past, you will not be required to complete it again. Please complete a letter including a description of your project, start and completion dates, projected costs (attach estimates if you have them), information on who to contact regarding project questions and any additional information you think the CFA board will need to know to help them better understand your project.
2. Successful grants will be scheduled for payment beginning in January 2022
